100 YEARS OF JAZZ HISTORY CLASS

Jazz Pensacola's own bassist Steve Douglas takes you through 100 years of jazz history.

Jazz has a long and varied history. To encapsulate that history, each class will cover 10 years of a genre that evoked varied styles, artists, and instrumentation. Each decade was known for the many different streams of styles in place at once. The class utilizes CDs for music sampling and Steve will play along to instruct how the music developed. Learn about the blues of the plantations and New Orleans, Dixieland, the hot 5's and 7's, big bands, dance crazes, ballrooms, radio's influence, bebop, west coast cool, boogaloo, funky soul, vocalists, smooth, fusion, and New Age, There is a lot to uncover and share.

- 10 week class
- 1-3 pm on Tuesdays
- Begins January 28, 2025
- Florida Public Archeology Network, 207 E. Main Street

The Jazz in the Quarter offering this month is Caravan playing a unique style of Hot Club Fusion. Doors open at 5:30; music begins at 6:30PM.

Gulf Jazz Society is presenting a concert with guitarist Steve Cospers, vocalist Sheila Ford and bassist Steve Gilmore Monday September 30 at the House of Henry at 461 Harrison Avenue in Panama City. The show is from 6:30-9:00. Admission is $10.

The 8th Annual Gulf Coast Summer Jazz Fest is underway at the Community Maritime Park beginning October 18 and 19, 2024. This is a big event for fans of smooth jazz.
